PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

The complainant states that Blanca Estela HERNANDEZ-Torres, is a citizen of a country other than the United States; that said alien has admitted she is deportable; that her testimony is material; that it is impracticable to secure her attendance at trial by subpoena; and that she is a material witness in relation to this criminal charge and should be held or admitted to bail pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3144.

On July 17, 2008, at approximately 1840 hours, Jessica ROSAS (Defendant) applied for admission into the United States at the Otay Mesa Port of Entry as the driver and sole visible occupant of a 1991 Toyota Previa. During primary inspection before a Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Officer Defendant stated she was going to Chula Vista, had nothing to declare, and that the vehicle belonged to her friend. The CBP Officer received an automated computer generated referral and escorted the vehicle and Defendant to secondary for further inspection.

In secondary, CBP Officers discovered a non-factory compartment located underneath the rear of the vehicle. One adult female was discovered concealed in the non-factory compartment. The concealed adult female was unable to extract herself from the vehicle. Several CBP officers removed two bolts that were loosely attached to the rear seats and were able to remove the right seat. The other passenger seat was unable to be removed therefore the CBP officers flipped the seat forward. With one seat removed the CBP officers were able to lift the carpet and noticed a metal access panel. The metal access panel was lifted and the adult female was revealed concealed inside. The adult female was determined to be a citizen of Mexico without entitlements to enter, pass through or reside in the United States and is now identified as Blanca Estela HERNANDEZ-Torres (Material Witness).

During a videotaped proceeding, Defendant was advised of her Miranda rights and elected to submit to questioning without benefit to counsel. Defendant admitted knowledge of the concealed individual. Defendant stated she agreed to smuggle a person into the United States in exchange for $900-$1,000.00 USD. Defendant stated that she was to deliver the vehicle to her home in California where someone would meet her and take custody of the vehicle and concealed person.

On a separate videotaped interview, Material Witness admitted she is a citizen of Mexico without legal rights to enter the United States. Material Witness stated she was going to pay an unknown amount to be smuggled into the United States. Material Witness stated she was en route to the state of Tennessee to be with family.
